TRENTBRIDGE SHOULD WIN

King's Fancy And Valorous For "Daily Double"

Australian Event Open: Bag Tor Fancied

To-day Trentbridge and Diana Bay will meet again over a mile and a quarter and Mrs. Pearce's pony will be conceding seven pounds to the ex-champion. There should be a very fast race with the odds slightly in favour of Trentbridge.

The rest of the programme is very open, and particularly is this the case with the Australian race, where several ponies, Bag Tor, Saucy Face, High Finance and Mutiny Bay have about equal claims.

The Bodega will be sure to start a favourite for the second race while for the Double, King's Fancy and Valorous will be certain to command the most support.

Brechlin will be out to establish his series of three consecutive victories. He should not be far away, but the fact that he is carrying top weight will probably put away punters off him.

Electric Star For First Race

For the opening event, the starters will include, Macaroni, Electric Star, Soldier of China, Oak Bay, High Speed and King's Warden. In spite of his defeat a week ago by Soldier of Britain and Gladiator, I can't help feeling that Electric Star will win here. Macaroni should run him very close, but the weight of 159 allotted to this pony will not help his chances. Soldier of China is moving fairly well again and may run into a place. The distance, to my mind is a bit long for Oak Bay, while King's Warden is not quite ready. High Speed with 140 pounds may start here, and in view of his light weight, he must not be overlooked altogether. His chances for a place look quite good.

The Bodega

Mr. Heard should not have great difficulty in winning with The Bodega in the second race of the day over a mile and a quarter where the pony will be carrying 162 pounds. Warrington (159) is going out under Mr. Proulx, and as this one-time champion sub is running very well, I expect him to give The Bodega a run for his money. Another pony which is running well at the moment is Burgo-master, who will be in the able hands of Mr. Davis. Racing Triumph is here with 164 pounds. The weight does not appeal. Colombo, Chesterfield, Little Beauty and No Fear are all starting and any one of them might provide an upset. The race is sure to be interesting and I expect a close finish.

King's Fancy

I can honestly say that King's Fancy has improved tremendously over his form of a week ago and when he goes to the post under

Mr. Heard this afternoon in the six furlongs against Brechlin, Gladiator, Soldier of Germany and Don, I am sure he is going to start a favourite. His time of 1.28.2 (with 161 pounds up) in the first half of the season will earn for him many supporters. Brechlin will be his closest rival and should the iron grey win, it will be his third consecutive victory. He will carry 168 pounds. Gladiator is good for a place, but with 165 pounds on the saddle he does not strike me as a likely winner. Soldier of Germany is the best outsider here and his weight is just right too.

Trentbridge

There is little likelihood of Diana Bay extending Trentbridge even though the latter is conceding seven pounds in weight in the October handicap, over six furlongs. Of the others, I think we shall see an interesting race between King's Justice and Sadko. Whoever succeeds will probably also win the Autumn champions, as the best of the "A" Class ponies have not qualified to start for this event.

An Open Race

I think the Queensland Handicap is a very open event. Just that, I am informed, is not going to the post. In his absence, those with a claim are High Finance, Bag Tor, Saucy Face and Mutiny Bay. High Finance is sure to give his supporters a good run for their money, provided Mr. Botelho make the pony get down to it at the start. If he gets away with the field, it should not be difficult for this chestnut to share the struggle at the finish. Bag Tor has a big claim. He has been rested from racing for a long time, and that is not in his favour but he is a classy animal and the distance suits him.

Saucy Face ran very well to finish behind Racing Heart at the last outing and on that run alone, he should find plenty of supporters this afternoon. I think this pony will come very close.

Many people feel that Mutiny Bay will be turning up to-day. The pony is certainly fit, but in my opinion he will find the others too good for him. The same is true of Woodland Stag and The Goopie.

Valorous

On his training performance Valorous looks a very good thing for the "C" Class race over a mile and 171 yards. The field is likely to be very big and anything may happen, but on merits I should pick Valorous. Ribble should also be watched here, as he ran a poor race the last time he was saddled and will be out to make amends. Wonderful Stag is another pony which is moving well and the same is true of Racing Boy. Whichever Mr. Deitz selects will go very close.

This is the best race for those who would like to try and spot a long shot. The Tiger is here and is dangerous. Flying Tourist with 150 pounds might upset calculations, while any of the following might turn up. Blaire, Budge, Racing Pluck, Lemberg and Monoplane.

The Return Match

The return match between King's Parade and National Day will be over a mile and a quarter and

VISIT OF AIR MINISTER

Greeted by Service Planes

Bangkok, Oct. 8.

When Sir Philip Sassoon, Under-Secretary of State for Air, arrived at Don Muang, he was received by the local military authorities.

He was impressed by the concrete runways organisation at the aerodrome and expressed his regret that his programme for the homeward journey made it impossible for him to attend the annual dinner of the British Association in Siam.

At Alor Star

Penang, Oct. 8.

Sir Philip arrived at Alor Star yesterday at 3.40 p.m. and afterwards left for Penang by road.

The Imperial Airways machine by which he travelled was greeted by planes of the No. 100 (Torpedo Bomber) Squadron.

Sir Philip was met at Alor Star by the Resident Councillor.

After making a tour of Penang, where he has been staying with Mr. A. M. Goodman, Sir Philip left to-day by service aircraft for Kuala Lumpur, calling en route at Ipoh and Taiping.

To-morrow he will proceed to Singapore, where he will stay three days.

Grand Old Man Of Journalism

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 28.

Sir Langdon Bonython, who has just made the largest single public gift—£100,000—in the history of South Australia, is the Grand Old Man of Commonwealth Journalism.

He was born in London in 1848, and comes of an old Cornish family. At one time he was a very junior member of the staff of the newspaper, the "Adelaide Advertiser," of which he afterwards became proprietor. He sold the paper for £1,000,000 in 1929.

Sir Langdon's benefactions have been numerous since his retirement. They include £50,000 to Adelaide University for the erection of a Great Hall, and a similar sum for the establishment of a law school.

The Novel Breatheable Cure

for COUGHS BRONCHITIS and SORE THROAT

JUST as you breathe in the germs that set up throat, chest and lung disease, so you must breathe in the remedy that will destroy them. Peps alone provide this ideal and direct treatment.

When a Peps tablet dissolves in the mouth, the powerful healing and germicidal medicaments given off are (as the diagram shows) breathed down the windpipe (1) straight into the lungs, whereas liquid medicines are merely swallowed down the gullet (2) into the stomach.

Peps soothes the throat, strengthens the bronchials, loosens phlegm, and free the breathing. They heal sore inflamed membranes and quickly cure chronic coughs, colds, chills, sore throat, bronchitis, and other ailments of the throat, chest and lungs. All medicine dealers sell Peps.

CHINESE FRIENDS' TRIBUTES

At Entertainment To Hon. Mr. Wolfe

The popularity of the Hon. Mr. E.D.C. Wolfe, Inspector General of Police, who is leaving for Home on October 23, on retirement, was again in evidence yesterday when a farewell tea party was given in his honour by a large number of Chinese friends at the Chinese Merchant's Club.

Eloquent tributes to the excellent service rendered to the colony in particular and to the Chinese in general were paid by the Hon. Sir Shou-sun Chow, the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall and Mr. Luke O' Wan, the last named on behalf of the South China Athletic Association.

The function was presided over by the Hon. Sir Shou-sun Chow and there was a large and distinguished gathering present including the Rt. Rev. Bishop R. O. Hall, the Hon. Sir William Shenton, Sir William Horrell, the Hon. Mr. T. N. Chau, the Hon. Mr. E. Taylor, the Hon. Mr. R. M. Henderson, the Hon. Mr. H. Owen-Hughes, the Hon. Dr. S. W. Ts'o, Mr. N. L. Smith, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindell, Mr. Justice P. Jackson, Mr. M. J. Quist, Mr. H. Gipperich, Mr. M. K. Lo, Mr. M. W. Lo, Mr. M. H. Lo, Mr. Tang Shiu King, Dr. Li Shu Fan, Mr. Ho Kam Tong, Mr. Ho Man Kam, Mr. Li Po Kwai, Mr. Lo Ping Chai, Mr. Li Yick Mul, Mr. Li Yau Tsun, O.B.E., Mr. Kwok Siu Lau, Mr. Wong Kwong Tin, Mr. Wong Ping Sun, Mr. Ip Lan Chuen, Mr. Sam Pak Ming, Mr. Ng Wah, Mr. Mok Hon Sang, Mr. Ho Sal Wing, Mr. Li Siu Kam, Mr. Mak Tsui Chui, Mr. Ng Sing Kwan, Mr. E. Cook, Mr. A. W. G. Tickle, Mr. G. R. Sayer, Mr. T. H. King, Mr. G. P. de Martin, Mr. J. H. Taggart and Mr. Edgar Davidson.

The Hon. Sir Shou-sun Chow said: We are gathered here this afternoon to bid farewell to the Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, Inspector General of Police. Through this is a gathering of Mr. Wolfe's Chinese friends, it can be said, from the representative character of the hosts, that it is a Chinese community affair. Mr. Wolfe has served this Colony with such distinction for the long period of thirty-five years, that he has earned the high respect and esteem of the Chinese.

Though strict in the performance of his duties, he is fair, accessible and impartial. In fact, he is one of those Englishmen who have done much to bring about better relations between the governing and the governed. (applause). Though he is a "Wolfe," he has the heart of a gentle lamb. (laughter). That is why the Chinese community cannot let him go without marking in some tangible way their high appreciation of what he has done for it. I am not going to dilate upon Mr. Wolfe's qualifications. I leave that to my honorable friend Dr. Kotewall who knows him for a longer period than I do. I will say that what Dr. Kotewall is going to say has the hearty and complete endorsement of all us Chinese present.

We have decided to present Mr. Wolfe with an illuminated address in Chinese, but owing to the few days left to us before his departure, I fear that we will have to ask him to accept it in spirit, for the present. The address will be sent on to him when ready to tell the truth. It has not even been compiled, but our sentiments that will go into it will no doubt be expressed for us adequately and eloquently by my friend Dr. Kotewall this afternoon. Whether Mr. Wolfe gets any tangible memento from us or not, I am sure he can never forget Hong Kong or his Chinese friends in Hong Kong. (applause).

The White Line

We, on our part, will ever remember him. The ubiquitous white line with the word "Slow" that stretches miles and miles in the Colony will alone remind us daily, and many times a day, of him.

I should like at the same time to announce that among us present are also representatives of the South China Athletic Association who will, through their Chairman, make a presentation to Mr. Wolfe as a token of their esteem. Owing to the impossibility of finding another date for this function on account of the near approach of Mr. Wolfe's departure, it has been decided that the two ceremonies might be amalgamated as they are now. This amalgamation is not inappropriate in that practically all of the Chinese present are members of the South China Athletic Association.

Before asking Dr. Kotewall to address us, I would like to express the thanks of the hosts to our European friends for their presence this afternoon. (applause).

HON. DR. KOTEWALL

The Hon. Dr. Kotewall said: I divide our rulers into three classes: those we can afford to forego; those we would like to see go; and those we want to keep. The rule of the Service and human circumstance are such that we can no more keep a good man when his time is due to go, than we can get rid of a bad man when he is not due to go (laughter and applause). Our Inspector-General of Police the Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, is one of those whom we would like to keep for some years yet, but he has made up his mind to leave. In token of their high esteem and admiration for him his many Chinese friends are gathered here to-day to bid him farewell. A melancholy circumstance has made Mr. Wolfe's departure so sudden that we have had no time to get up in his honour, a banquet or even to make this function more adequate for the occasion. In any case Mr. Wolfe prefers this simple little ceremony which, in spite of its inadequacy, is weighted with friendly feelings and good wishes. (applause).

Most Important Reform

Mr. Wolfe's most important reform is, to my mind, the improvement of the material comfort of his men, which has made them contented and therefore more efficient public servants. Not only has he raised their pay, but he has also given them better accommodation and greater facilities for recreation. In short, Mr. Wolfe has done more to improve the well-being of the policeman than any of his predecessors. (applause) I claim more than an outsider's knowledge of this matter, for I began my career in the Police Department, and have since maintained taken an interest in the Force where I had and still have friends with whom I sometimes exchange friendly views.

In regard to the Fire Brigade, Mr. Wolfe himself said only a few days ago that it is now one of the most efficient public departments in the Colony, and that it has often been referred to as one of the most efficient fire organisations in the Far East. This view is held by many residents here. (applause).

Colony Poorer

Mr. Wolfe will in a few days leave us, and the Colony will be the poorer by his going. To my wife and myself—if I may introduce a personal note here—the sense of impending loss is heavy, for we have the privilege of counting Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe as two of our dear friends. Mr. Wolfe has always taken a deep interest not only in her husband's work but also in every good cause (applause). By her womanly qualities and in-born kindness she has endeared herself to all those who have the privilege of her acquaintance.

On behalf of their Chinese friends and, I may say, of the whole Chinese community, I wish Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe many years of happiness to enjoy the retirement which their good work has so well earned for them. (Loud Applause)

PRESENTATION MADE

Mr. Luke O' Wan, on behalf of the South China Athletic Association, then gave an address in Chinese, eulogising the splendid service rendered to the Chinese by the Hon. Mr. Wolfe, after which he presented him with a nicely bound book entitled "An old Chinese Garden: A three-fold masterpiece of Poetry, Calligraphy and Painting," and a pair of valedictory inscriptions.

HON. MR. E. D. C. WOLFE

In his reply, the Hon. Mr. Wolfe said:—

I much regret my inability to emulate our mutual friend Mr. A. E. Wood, who so courageously addressed his farewell remarks to you in Cantonese, when he was here some six months ago, but I trust that your worthy Chairman will briefly recapitulate what I have to say in Chinese when I have concluded my farewell address. It is now thirty-five years since I first landed in Hong Kong, and throughout all these years, and in

MALAYAN AIR FORCE

Interesting Debate By Chinese

Singapore, Oct. 13.

"That in the interests of this country the Government should institute a Malayan Air Force of local-born men" was a resolution debated on by the Chinese Christian Association last night at Prinsap Street. Mr. Song Ong Slang was in the chair.

The motion was lost on a show of hands by three votes. The chairman made a few interesting remarks at the conclusion of the discussion disagreeing with a statement made by Sir Philip Sassoon that the people of Malaya were air-minded. The chairman said that Sir Philip had evidently met a certain number of people who were keen on aviation but that hardly would justify Sir Philip generalising. They were no doubt becoming interested in aviation and things in the air but it would take some time for a good percentage of the people to become air-minded.

So far as the Chinese people were concerned, said the chairman, they had not had much of a chance of trying to acquire the feeling of air-mindedness.

Dangerous Weapon

Mr. Lee Hong Yew, the leader of the affirmative, said that the subject was important and interesting. The most dangerous weapons of modern warfare were bombs and poison gas dropped from the air. The institution of a Malayan air force of local-born men would increase the strength of our defence and lessen the danger of attack on the city.

With an increased air force the frontiers could be kept at a further distance for planes could patrol a bigger area. At present in the event of an attack the R.A.F. might be able to deal with it but after two or three more attacks they might need immediate help from India or Australia, and before help could come from these places considerable damage could be done to this city.

Singapore's Position

Singapore being an island at the extreme south of the Malay Peninsula was the backbone of the whole defence of British possessions in the Far East. Therefore, Singapore was like a family man who had to bear the brunt of every thing in the interests of the family.

Enemy planes might attack by the hundreds, continued the speaker. It was their duty to defend their cities to the best of their abilities. And to obtain that ability they should prepare beforehand and one way of doing it was by the Government instituting a Malayan air force of local-born men. Local-born men were more suited to the climate and could undergo all sorts of hardships. Their loyalty was beyond question.

Sir Philip Sassoon, the Under-Secretary for Air, had stated in answer to a question by a representative of the Singapore Free Press regarding the formation of an auxiliary air force, that he would view the proposal with sympathy. On that they should take the opportunity of bringing to the notice of Government the need for an air force of local men as part of an auxiliary air force.

Mr. Song Kok Cheng opposed the resolution. He said that the geographical position of Singapore made things very dangerous for her in the event of war. It was an absolute necessity to have an efficient air force for the defence of Malaya and they needed experienced men.

The East on the whole was not so air-minded as the West and an air force of local-born men would not reach the same standard of efficiency as an air force in England or America. To attempt to form an air force of local-born men was a Herculean task.

Men From England

Another difficulty here was that Malaya was a cosmopolitan country and to train local men would be difficult. He thought that it would cost less to bring men out from England with machines than to train local men and to purchase machines.

Mr. Tan Peng Whee spoke in support of the resolution. He said that in view of the political dissension in central Europe, Asia, and South America, he could not help but come to the conclusion that war was inevitable. It might come this year or next; it was only a question of time. The next war, he

BETTY COMPSON

On The Stage At The Alhambra

Betty Compton, the well-known American film star appeared in person on the stage at the Alhambra Theatre last night, and judging by the reception which was given her by the audience, she certainly has made a good impression. There was a crowded house.

Supported by Lynn Cowan and Bill Bailey, the programme (which incidentally was all too brief) was carried through with a snap and liveliness that we see but on rare occasions in Hong Kong.

Betty's imitation of Mae West and Marlene Dietrich was supreme and her musical accomplishments were shown to great advantage when she played on her famous singing violin.

"The Man Who Played God" was the picture attraction, featuring George Arliss. The story tells of a famous pianist who lost his hearing in a bomb explosion, and embittered and disheartened, rails against the injustice of God. From his window in his lovely home overlooking Central Park, with the aid of a pair of opera glasses, he reads the lips of the people, and thus we find him assuming the role of a beneficent Providence, and giving time and money to relieve distress. The role suits Arliss well and the picture is one of his best.

WEST POINT EXPLOSION

Claims Against Gas Company

At the Summary Court yesterday upon the weekly list of claims being called, there were eighteen against the Hong Kong and South China Gas Company, arising out of the recent explosion disaster at West Point.

Mr. Justice Jackson, Puisne Judge, allowed adjournments sine die in view of the possibility of effecting some settlements.

All the plaintiffs are Chinese and their claims total over $4,000. Other and larger claims have been filed in Original Jurisdiction.

said, would be fought in the air and aviators were needed.

Mr. Yee Kim Son supported the opposition. He said that they gave a defence contribution to the Imperial Government and it was up to the Imperial Government to look after the safety of Malaya. The debate was thrown open to discussion and Mr. Ang Whatt Kim made a brief speech opposing the resolution.

The chairman summed up, and put the resolution to vote.

"LOCH NESS" FILMED!

A Romantic Melodrama

"The Loch Ness monster has been filmed."

That is the meaning of the message (in cipher) which came over the wires last night. It took us—the Admiral and me—a couple of hours to decipher it. But oh, boy! the jubilation when we'd finished. We opened a bottle of hook (from Tanganyika) and drained it to the last drops. Our directors stick at practically nothing.

The next thing, of course, was to knock up a scenario. Difficult! Not a bit. If you'd had the practice I have—Hollywood, Elstree, Waddour Street—you'd take a thing like that in your stride. How's this for a beginning?

Indian Soldiers' Bus Fares

For failure to pay the legal bus fare from Kowloon City to Tsim-sha-teui, Lance-Corporal Boora Khan of the Indian Army, Service Corps, and Runett Abdullah, were charged before Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones, at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court yesterday.

It was stated in evidence by Chan Kam, bus conductor of the Kowloon Motor Bus Company, that defendants boarded the bus at the sub-section and Matalukok. The first defendant handed him ten cents and asked for tickets for "two men." When asked to get off at the sub-section at Hunghom, they refused to do so and said they travelled to the Star Ferry for five cents every day. They also refused to buy another ticket.

A ticket inspector was called and admitted that when he asked the defendants to buy another ticket, the first defendant produced a dollar, but it was chopped. His Worship remarked that as the defendants produced a dollar to buy another ticket, although it was chopped, they had no intent to defraud the bus company. Both defendants would be discharged.

THE MUDDLE IN EUROPE

Affairs in Europe, with the recent assassinations of various political leaders still fresh in mind, can be said to have reached an interesting stage. The efforts of the statesmen to lead an amazingly sleek but still bulky and definitely communistic Russian Bear up the back stairs of the League of Nations and insert him into a Council seat without stumbling over any chairs or treading on any sensitive national toes is an amusing spectacle. It beautifully illustrates both the indispensability of the League and its dependence on unstable political alignments amid the shifting sands of nationalistic diplomacy.

For this is the same Russia—well, nearly the same—which was an outcast in Europe when the League was formed and is to-day still unrecognized by some members. It is the same Soviet Government which has repeatedly scorned the Geneva hope for international co-operation with a scorn even greater than Washington's. And the France, Italy and Britain that are now all pulling together on the wires which are opening the doors for the Bear's admission are the same countries which only a few months ago could agree on nothing.

This tethering of the Bolshevik Bear to the European peace machine shows what wonders diplomatic sleight of hand can accomplish when the urge is sufficient. The urge, unhappily, appears to be more of fear than of any consecrated desire for peace. Fear of German nationalism lies behind changes in Europe which combined amount almost to a reconstitution of its political structure. There have been two

REICHSTAG FIRE

A Sensational Sequel

London, October 19. There has been a sensational sequel to the great Reichstag fire trial last year when Leopold Harris and others were sentenced. TYPHOON WARNING.

The following telegram was received yesterday by the American Consulate from Manila, timed 3.50 p.m.—

"Typhoon in about 126 degrees Long. E. and 14 degrees Lat. N., moving W.N.W."

At 5 p.m. yesterday the Hong Kong Observatory reported:

The typhoon appears to be filling up to the north west of Tonkin. The Pacific typhoon is about 300 miles to the east-south-east of Manila, moving W.N.W.

major changes. The first was, from hope, or at least hopeful talk, of a co-operative system heading up in the League to a modified balance of power, with a rough division as between the nations who wished the peace treaties revised and those who stood for the status quo.

The second change, which has allowed the triumph of National Socialism in Germany, is the overbalancing of the "balance of power" and the formation of a ring around the Reich which is as complete as that of war times. Italy, which had been tentatively encouraging Berlin's revisionist hopes, has since National Socialist capture of Austria become a possibility, swung clear over and now may even patch up her differences with France. Moscow has already reached an understanding with Paris which apparently amounts to an alliance. And Britain, alienated by Hitler methods and alarmed by German rearmament in the air, has come closer to France than she has been since the war.

That this new organization of Europe has brought a greater sense of security to most countries cannot be doubted. But there is doubt as to how long it will hold, with news such as the recent assassinations occupying the front pages of the Press of every country.

FRICTION IN IRELAND

Farmers Up In Arms

Dublin, Oct. 18.

A "war" between the Free State Government and the farmers, as a result of the campaign of the latter against the seizure of property of those who have not paid their land annuities has taken a turn which is regarded as serious. In East Cork a number of farmers, most of them Blue Shirts, have been arrested following their attempt to block the roads and use other devices to prevent seizures of their land. They have been imprisoned in Dublin pending trial by a military tribunal. Large forces of police have been drafted into the district and are carrying out raids and making arrests over a wide area. Nevertheless, the road-blocking continues and was carried out last night on a more extensive scale than ever. There is great police activity also in Co. Kilkenny and Co. Limerick where sixty-five farmers have been arrested.—

Magdeburg, Oct. 19.

The winter relief work that proved such a success to Germany last year is to be a permanent institution of the Third Reich even after unemployment is completely wiped out, said Herr Hilgenfeldt, the chief organizer of the whole scheme in an interview granted to the newspaper "Mitteldeutscher." The main reason for this decision is to express the wish of the Fuehrer who sees in winter aid a great education force inculcating the idea of national unity and living form of practical socialism.—

It is now stated that Burgomaster Kallinger of Oberbierbaum was not murdered as originally believed but that the death of this political leader was due rather to an accident caused by the deceased's chronic stomach trouble. It will be recalled that Kallinger's death a few days ago caused a considerable stir in political circles.

Kallinger had taken an active part in the political life, being one of the leaders of the Lower Austrian Peasant's League.—

RESIGNATIONS IN MANCHUKUO

Persuasion Fails

Dairen, Oct. 19.

Mr. Kanjito Oba addressing 700 Kwangtung Government officials at Port Arthur implored them to cease antagonistic movements. "Though the attitude of the Central Government is against us," he said, "we should abide and display faithfulness." Junior officials subsequently held a mass meeting and decided on wholesale resignations despite Mr. Oba's persuasion, claiming that they will follow the resigned leaders. General Hsueh-kari is not likely to accept any of the resignations.—

Mr. Drummond And Party

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Nanking, Oct. 19.

Mr. J. R. Drummond, the representative of the "Christian Science Monitor," Mrs. Drummond and members of the party of American journalists who are on their way to Shanghai from Peiping after having toured Manchuria, broke their journey at Nanking and were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mr. Wang Ching Wei, President of the Executive Yuan. Interviewed, Mr. Drummond said that the only thing he noticed in Changchun, the Puppet capital, was the boom in buildings under construction. The party had no opportunity to converse with Chinese organizations there.

Replying to a further question as to whether the party had any chance to interview the Puppet Emperor, Pu Yi, Mr. Drummond said that although an audience was granted only greeting remarks came from Pu Yi and there was no chance of asking him any questions.—

More Complaints

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Tientsin, Oct. 19.

Tass reports from Habarovsk state that the arbitrary actions of the Japanese military and railway police officials of the C.E.R. zone are continuing, including the seizures of buildings belonging to the railway and acts of violence against the railway agents. The C.E.R. Manager, Rudy, has submitted his report to the Board of the Railway enumerating the new facts and requesting that urgent steps be taken in order to check interference in the normal work of the railways. Attention is drawn to the arbitrary actions of persons not connected with the railway.

At Barin Station a gang of workers directed by Japan arbitrarily began the construction of a highway parallel to the main track only 245 metres distance. It is not known whether the Japanese building organisation is also arbitrarily constructing a highway within the railway zone in the direction of Pusan, 23 metres from the C.E.R. main line.—

Emphasizing that they are firmly opposed to the return of the Monarchy and willing to give support to the Republic, Senor Gil Robles, leader of the Catholic section which is holding the balance of power in present-day Spain, made a significant statement in the Cortes in the course of which he also declared himself against every form of dictatorship since dictatorships are bound to lead sooner or later to revolution. Coming from Robles, who is hitherto regarded as a revolutionary, this statement is considered to be of great importance more specially since Robles, with the backing of 950 seats is generally conceded to have good prospects of becoming the next Premier.—

WINNER TAKES ALL

At The Alhambra To-morrow

Adding another characterization to the variety he has already brought to the screen, James Cagney comes to the Alhambra Theatre to-morrow, in the role of a pugilist with Park Avenue aspirations in his latest Warner Bros. picture, "Winner Take All."

Cagney is seen as an up and coming prize fighter whose health suffers as the result of dissipation. Going to a rest home in New Mexico to recuperate he meets a society girl who regards him as a new form of entertainment. Jim, however, takes her seriously and decides to become her equal, going in for a re-made nose and ear, an etiquette teacher and Fifth Avenue tailors. He is brought to realize his mistake in one of the fastest comedy climaxes ever screened.

"Winner Take All" moves at the speed of a championship bout from opening scenes to finale. Cagney gives what metropolitan critics call the best performance of his career. He enacts to perfection the part of a socially ambitious prize-fighter. The picture provides one laugh after another; the majority of which are delivered by Cagney.

The supporting cast includes Marian Nixon as the first love of the pug who later becomes infatuated with the society girl, portrayed by Virginia Bruce, beautiful former Folies girl. Others are Guy Kibbee, Dickie Moore, Clarence Muse, Allan Lane, John Boles and Esther Howard.

Roy Del Ruth, directed directed, "Winner Take All."

DEATH—LOVE'S REWARD

Unwritten Law Of Espionage

"When a beautiful spy neglects her duty to her country to fall in love, she invariably signs her own death warrant."

Out of this unwritten law of espionage, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has produced a vitally gripping screen drama that is different from all of its predecessors.

The picture is "Stamboul Quest" (to-morrow's attraction at the Queen's Theatre), with Myrna Loy and George Brent presenting to the screen public an entirely new team of screen lovers. Miss Loy, heretofore seen in supporting roles, carries off the major portion of the honours that must be distributed for the class of entertainment that this picture contains.

As "Faulein Doktor" Germany's mysterious spy, Miss Loy is despatched to Turkey to trap Ali Bey, a high military official suspected of "selling out" to the enemy. The mission is a most dangerous one, but made doubly hazardous for "Faulein Doktor" by the persistent pursuit of Douglas Beall, a dashing young American. He is madly in love with Miss Loy whom he does not suspect as a secret service agent.

To serve her country, "Faulein Doktor" condemns her sweetheart to death. The subsequent developments make this one of the most gripping and intense love dramas seen upon the screen in many moons.

George Brent plays the role of Beall and no better choice could have been made. C. Henry Gordon, always dependable, is seen as Ali Bey, the Turkish General, and Lionel Atwill deserves honourable mention for his characterization of Sturm, chief of the German counter-espionage system.

"George White's Scandals"

Fox Film musical, George White's "Scandals" is showing at the Oriental Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It will introduce a new policy in the popularizing of song hits. The motion picture audience will be the first to hear the songs with which this production of the famous show is studded. In the cast of George "White's Scandals," the policy of restricted radio broadcasting will serve to prevent the indiscriminate duplication and repetition of its songs. Rudy Vallee, star of the film, with Jimmy Durante and Alice Faye, has been given the honour of being the first to broadcast the song hits in "Scandals." He sings for the first time, "Hold My Hands," "Sweet and Simple" and "My Dog Loves Your Dog," were written by Jack Yellen, Irving Caesar and Ray Henderson, three of America's most famous song writers. Other songs from the production to be heard on the radio are "So Nice," "Nasty Man" and "Six Women."

"HOLD THAT GIRL"

Coming To The King's

Playing opposite each other for the second time, James Dunn and Claire Trevor will make their appearance in "Hold That Girl," Fox Film's latest release which comes to the screen of the King's Theatre on Wednesday. Because of the success these two stars attained in their first picture, "Jimmy and Sally," Fox had seen fit to star them again in this one, a breezy romance between a smart young detective and a fresh girl reporter. A youthful detective falls in love with a girl reporter whom he meets while trying to apprehend a maniac. Their romance is a pull and tug affair. The girl arouses the jealousy of the detective by carrying on her relationship with a gangster whose friendship she has developed. She has become involved in a complex situation. The young detective arrives on the scene in time to save the girl and arrest the gangsters.

"BRITANNIA OF BILLINGSGATE"

Final Showing At The Queen's

"Britannia of Billingsgate" the Gaumont-British picture is packed with humorous situations which provoke happy laughter and warm-hearted appreciation. The story is that of the reactions of the Boltons, a Billingsgate family, when Mrs. Bolton (Violet Loraine), is suddenly selected to star in a film, and although comedy is the predominant element, there are moments of drama.

Gordon Harker, of course, has a role considerably to his liking, as the fish market porter who tries to become a gentleman, a role that is possibly the finest he has yet created.

The homely good-natured appeal of Miss Loraine, coupled with the broad humour of Gordon Harker, plus the interesting peeps into film studio life, makes "Britannia of Billingsgate" one of the most popular pictures of the year. It is having its final showing to-day at the Queen's, so don't miss it!

MAN-EATING TIGER

Kuala Lipis, Oct. 7.
A man-eating tiger, which is causing panic in the district of Jerantut, has so far caused two deaths within the last two months. The first victim was a Chinese, whose remains were found on the edge of the jungle near the Railway line between Jerantut and Sungai Tembling during the latter part of August. An inquest was held on Sept. 1 by Tungku Mohamed ibni Tungku Besar of Negri Sembilan, Magistrate, Kuala Lipis, and the verdict arrived at was "Death by misadventure caused by some wild animal."

On Sept. 7 another report was made at the Jerantut police station that a Malay had been severely mauled by a tiger, and had died five days later. The victim was Mohamed Salleh bin Pandak engaged as a P.W.D. coolie. According to an eye-witness, a gang of coolies went out to work at 6 a.m. that morning on road clearing at the 62nd mile, Jerantut-Kuantan trunk road.

Cry For Help
The deceased was working some distance away from the others. Suddenly there was a cry for help and Mat Pulus, the witness, saw the deceased falling into a drain and some animal or other jumping into the jungle.

When he got to the spot where Mohamed Salleh was lying he saw a tiger lying a few yards away inside the jungle watching him. He let off a yell in which the others joined and this caused the tiger to disappear into the jungle. Lifting Mohamed Salleh, who was badly mauled about the head and scratched about the face, they took him to hospital in Kuala Lipis but unfortunately after five days he succumbed to his injuries.

REVENUE STAMPS

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, Oct. 19.
It was official announced to-day that revenue stamps will continue to be sold at the Stamp Tax Bureau here as under existing arrangement.

The Ministry of Finance has ordered that on and after November 1 the sale of revenue stamps will be undertaken by the Post Office. This order is applicable to Kwangtung is deferred by reason of the special political position of the South-west.

The Stamp Tax Bureau here is under the jurisdiction of the South-west Political Council, and all revenues from stamp tax are used for provincial purposes.

PIGS MORE VALUED

A "Queer" People

Singapore, Oct. 11.

"The Yankee on an uncharted cruise" was the subject of the address delivered by Capt. Irving Johnson at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club of Singapore yesterday at the Adelphi Hotel. Mr. Lester Goodman, the President of the Rotary Club was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members.

Capt. Johnson said that the crew of the schooner "Yankee" numbered sixteen, including four women, and the only professional man on board was the cook. The rest of the crew had to do everything that was necessary, keeping watch, scrubbing floors, etc. The trip had so far lasted a year and the crew were quite prepared to continue the tour.

The speaker next gave a brief description of the experiences they had had from the time they commenced. Their first amusing incident was in the Panama Canal when the Yankee had to be held in position by ropes. The Yankee had high bulwarks and that prevented members of the crew from going over the side.

Capt. Johnson then described how, when they got into the Pacific, his amateur crew killed a whale off some of the islands. Fish abounded there.

With the exception of the doctor, who was 55, all members of the crew were below 28 years of age and some of them were doing this trip in place of a college education, so that one could well imagine what experience they had of catching whales.

Great Reception At Tahiti
They ran into a place full of turtles and the younger members of the crew simply enjoyed themselves catching these. At another place they came across a pocket of lobsters. The lobsters could be seen from the schooner and all one had to do was to dive down and pull them out by the bucketful.

They also did some hunting, continued Capt. Johnson, and at times brought down three ducks with one shot.

At Tahiti they were given a great reception by the natives who loaded them with fruits of all kinds.

At another island the natives valued pigs more than their own wives. If you had a moderate-sized pig you could get in return a pretty girl but if you had a big-sized pig with curling tusks, you would be able to get a girl and something else in return.

Capt. Johnson stated that the Yankee discovered five small islands in the Pacific. He said his audience might have read in the newspapers a story about the discovery. That story emanated by his sending his brother just the four words "Discovered five small islands" and with that small message journalists made a big story.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY

American Sailor
Fined

Moody Hall, aged 26, a sailor, from the U.S.S. Mindanao was yesterday afternoon fined $100 and ordered to pay $32 compensation
upon being convicted on charges of drunkenness and disorderly behaviour on the night of October 14 in Tai Nam Street.

Moody Hall was originally charged, with the theft of $110 from No. 95, Tai Nam Street and with maliciously damaging five show cases, but after a lengthy hearing the first charge was amended to theft of $21, that being the amount found on his person at the time of his arrest.

After a lengthy hearing yesterday His Worship addressed Lt.
Gregg of the same ship who was appearing for the defendant, and said that in all fairness to the defendant, he was substituting the charges of theft and malicious damage to ones of drunk and disorderly in his opinion the defendant was in such a state of drunkenness between the hours of 10.30 p.m. on October 13 and 9.30 a.m. on the 14th instant, that his knowledge of what had happened was negligible.

Charles Thompson, Chief Engine
Room Artificer on the U.S.S.
Mindanao testified that he has known the defendant for a year.

At about 9 a.m. on October 13
the defendant approached witness for a loan of $10 Mexican because he wanted to go ashore. Witness gave the defendant the money who did not say what he wanted it for.
"I have served one year in the engine room of the ship with the defendant and he always obeyed orders promptly and has always had a good character."

Had One Drink

Edmund George Kalua, another sailor from the U.S.S. Mindanao testified that on the same day
the defendant had also borrowed $10
Mexican from him at the Palace Hotel. They had one drink together and during the time that they were together defendant was sober.

James Harry Connor, Chief Quarter Master of the ship said he has known the defendant for a year.

He met the defendant at about 6 p.m. on October 13 when the latter asked him for a loan of $10 Mexican as he wanted to stay ashore. The defendant's general reputation was excellent.

After the Chinese accountant of the shop had testified that the accounts for the month had been properly entered to date His Worship asked the defendant if he wished to address him.

As the defendant was preparing his address, Mr. Wynne-Jones said:
I propose to alter both charges as they now appear. In this case the defendant is in an awkward predicament in that, nobody can testify as to the state of his mind between the hours of 10.30 p.m. on October 13 and 9.30 a.m. on the 14th instant or why and how he committed this outrage.

It is quite obvious that between these hours he did not know what had happened and obviously took no trouble to make his getaway after damaging the show cases but sat in the shop crowing over what he had done.

It is also obvious that had he known what crime he had perpetrated he would have made his getaway in good time but as it was he was still in the shop
crowing when the Police arrived, and what he intended to do subsequently, we do not know.

His whole behaviour that night seems obscure. First he ends up in Simashupoo, a most peculiar district and breaks into a tailor's shop, why a tailor's shop is completely beyond my comprehension.

"Did Not Know"

I believe that he was so drunk that he did not know what he was doing. After breaking the show cases he crows over what he has done. Why doesn't he go?
He stays some time until the European Detective arrives and when asked to put down the money he had in his hand, assumes a belligerent attitude, and is arrested. This bears out that he did not know what he was doing, so I am going to cross out
the two charges against you, Moody Hall and substitute the previous ones with those of drunk and disorderly behaviour. Do you plead guilty to these?

Moody Hall: I plead guilty to these charges.

Mr. Wynne-Jones: Under the Ordinance the maximum is a fine of $100 or three months' imprison-

ATTEMPTED FRAUD FAILS

Cheung Tin Po, a Chinese male aged 22 and Ip Chai, a woman of 36, appeared before Mr. C. A.
A. Macfadyen at the Central Magistracy yesterday and were convicted on charges of obtaining the sum of $316 from Wong Sul of No. 4 Caroline Road, by false pretences and with conspiracy, to defraud Wong Sul, and were each sentenced to three months' hard labour.

Detective Inspector J. Murphy said complainant was a Chinese doctor and a merchant. He lived at No. 4 Caroline Road, and had a sister residing at No. 42 Wing Lok Street. They had an uncle, who was a Government official,
living in Wuchow, and he was in the habit of writing to them occasionally. On October 16, the complainant's sister received a letter purporting to have been written by the uncle, the gist of the letter being that a man, also employed with the Government in Wuchow, had died, and that a certain person would go to her house to receive $316 in Chinese currency. On October 17, she received a telephone message, but as she was not in, her servant invited the caller to come to the house at 7.30 p.m. when her mistress would be back.

Meanwhile, the complainant and his sister had gone to the Police Station to see Inspector Murphy and had explained the whole situation to him. Inspector Murphy marked $30 and handed it to the complainant with the instruction that it was to be handed over to the caller. Two detectives were also sent down to the house with the complainant.

Accordingly at 7.30 p.m., the Chinese detectives hid themselves on the premises. Shortly afterwards, the defendants knocked at the door and were admitted. They then proceeded with the story of needing the money for funeral expenses, the male defendant representing himself to be the brother of the dead man and the woman his widow.

After the $30 had been handed over with the assurance that the remainder of the $316 would be forthcoming in a week, the detectives came out of their hiding places and arrested the defendants.

When charged yesterday morning, both defendants pleaded guilty, but denied knowledge of each other.

The woman said she had been instructed to follow the man, and the man said he was acting on instructions and did not know the woman.

His Worship: You are both old enough to know what you were doing.

Inspector Murphy said that what happened was, that a letter from Wuchow had been tampered with. The original letter had been taken out and another substituted in its place.

ment. I am going to fine you $100 and under my powers as a Magistrate, am going to ask you to compensate the shop-keeper for the damage. The trial sum of money found on your person and in the shop at the time amounts to $78 while the damage assessed by Inspector Shattah is $82.
Will you pay the extra $4 and the one of $100?—I will.

You are then fined $100 and
ordered to pay $32 compensation,

Mr. F. I. Wynne-Jones sentenced Kwan Yot, a coolie, to four months' hard labour and 12 strokes of the birch, for stealing a handbag from Mrs. Anderson of 22, Carnarvon Road. It was stated that while Mrs. Anderson was talking to a friend in Nathan Road, near Cameron Road, on Thursday evening, defendant came up behind her and snatched the bag from under her arm. Defendant was charged and was arrested by Sergeant Byrne.

NEWS FROM CHINA

COMMISSIONER
OF CUSTOMSPress Report Of An Appointment

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, Oct. 19.—As all the Chinese newspapers published in Canton and Hong Kong stated that one Mr. Books has been appointed Commissioner of Chinese Customs in Hong Kong, the Canton Chamber of Commerce has decided to raise further opposition against this scheme.

It is learned on the contrary that there is no Mr. Books in the Chinese Customs service and that the Ministry of Finance or the Inspector General of Customs has not appointed any one to be the Commissioner of Chinese Customs in Hong Kong.

The Chamber of Commerce here has no special information of its own and voices its opposition to the Hong Kong scheme as based on the information in the vernacular dailies in Canton and Hong Kong. A telegram was sent to the Ministry of Finance about three weeks ago, expressing objection to the setting up of Chinese customs in Hong Kong on the ground that "the Colony will thereby be prosperous at the expense of Canton."

"The Kung Sheung Po," or known as Industrial and Commercial Press of Hong Kong, had been publishing during the past three days this Hong Kong customs scheme and stated that "Commissioner Books" will begin his duties at Hong Kong on November 1 and that he had been to Canton to consult the customs authorities here with respect to collecting of duties at Hong Kong.

The famous Mr. Books is believed to be Mr. A. H. Forbes, the new Commissioner of Chinese Customs at Kowloon and District. He came up here during the week-end for a brief visit, and his name was distorted by the Chinese press until it was pronounced as Mr. Books. In any event, the "big story" of the "Kung Sheung Po," which is selling quite well here, has created plenty of undue anxiety and uncertainty in the minds of local merchants.

COMMUNISTS IN
KIANGSISome Notes On The Organisation

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, Oct. 18.—That the Communists in Kiangsi are fighting a losing battle and will be soon suppressed by the government forces was the graphic account narrated by General Lo Cho Ying, commanding officer of the 18th Nanking Army, to newspaper men here.

General Lo flew to Canton from Hankow by aeroplane and has been in conference with the military authorities here concerning the final phase of the anti-Communist campaign. He was sent to Canton by General Chiang Kai Shek, Chairman of the Military Affairs Commission, because the visiting officer has spent four years in fighting the Reds in Kiangsi and has first-hand knowledge of the military situation there.

His mission is to instruct the final phase of the anti-Communist Army to co-operate with the Nanking troops in launching a simultaneous drive on the Reds and in preventing them from escaping to the western provinces.

"The capital of the so-called Soviet Socialist Republic in Kiangsi is located at Julchia which issues all orders to the various Communist armies," General Lo declared. "Contrary to previous reports, the Communist leaders such as Chu Teh and Miao Tse Tung are still alive."

"Miao Tse Tung is the president of the bogus Central Soviet Government. Chu Teh is the president of the so-called military affairs commission. Both men are, however, in poor health. Chu Teh is so ill that he has to go about only on horse back."

"Most of the work of the military commission is in the charge of Chow Yan Lai, a member of the Commission. As he is not a mili-

ENGINEERING
STUDENTSPractical Instruction
Now Available

Nanking, Oct. 12.—To give better training and more practical experience to its students of the Department of Electrical Engineering, Nankai University, Tientsin, which is the best known private institution of higher learning in North China, has made arrangements with the Metropolitan Electrical Works, Nanking, for laboratory work in the latter institution.

According to an agreement reached by the two parties, Nankai University will dispatch its Senior students majoring in Electrical Engineering to the Electrical Works in Nanking for practice work for a period of five months, expiring in the Spring of next year.

When they take up practical work in Nanking, it is stated, it does not mean that they will have to miss theoretical enlightenment, for the students will be accompanied to Nanking by an Instructor of the University who will give them lectures in the evenings amounting to 6 credit hours per week.

Must Observe Rules.—During practice hours in the factory in daytime, it is agreed, the students shall strictly observe the directions and regulations of the Metropolitan Electrical Works. Board and lodging shall be provided the students by the Nanking Works while other expenses involved are to be financed by the University.

It is further agreed that after completion of their practice work the Metropolitan Electrical Works, aside from granting the students certificates in testimony of their work, shall assume no other responsibility whatever towards them. On the other hand, the students from Tientsin shall not be under any obligation to render service to the Electrical Works.

To guard against disturbance or inconvenience as may arise, the Metropolitan Works are authorized to dismiss any students who violate the regulations of the Company or show insubordination.

CHINA PAYS
TRIBUTECeremony In Berlin

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, October 19, 4.30 p.m.)

Berlin, Oct. 19.—After reviewing the Guard of Honour which presented arms in front of the Cenotaph in the Unter den Linden, the Chinese Minister of Communications who was accompanied by a Commanding General and several Chinese officers, placed a wreath on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier this morning.

Despite a drizzling rain a large crowd witnessed the stirring ceremony of China honouring Germany's dead in the World War.—Transocean Kuo Min.

any man, much of the staff work is done by a high Russian adviser." General Lo revealed the fact that military orders are issued by the political authority.

The strength of the Communists in Kiangsi is about 80,000 men with about 30,000 rifles, the general continued. All men between 16 and 45 years old must join the Red armies, he said, and because many were forced to join the fight they surrendered to the government forces at the first opportunity.

In recent months, the Communist leaders feel a shortage of man-power, and have drafted youth and old men into the rank and file of their rif-raff, according to General Lo.

There is great suffering among the people in the Communist zones due to the lack of foodstuffs, salt and medicine, General Lo added, and the apprehension as well as anxiety within those regions shows that the Communist strength is crumbling.

all the departments in which I have served, my Chinese friends have stood by me with sound advice and good judgment.

After completing by lessons in Cantonese, which appeared to hang fire at one stage, and which were only brought to a successful conclusion by my old friend Mr. Chan Chun-man, of the firm of Cheung Lung in Honam, Canton, who readily introduced me to Chinese life in all its phases, I came back to Hong Kong in 1901 and was appointed Registrar of the New Territories Land Court which was settling the claims to landed property in the leased Territories. During this early period which was followed by a time in the S.C.A. I made the acquaintance of Mr. Wei On who in turn introduced me to his brother the Hon. Poshan Wei Yuk whose kindly and helpful advice stood me in good stead for many years.

Later, when I was appointed Head of the Sanitary Department, Mr. Lau Chu Pak and my old friend Mr. Ho Kam Tong whom I am delighted to see here to-day assisted me in the difficult and trying office. The Sanitary Dept. had just been re-constituted and its every action was subjected to the very natural opposition of the ignorant masses whose fear of plague was hardly less real than that of the Sanitary Authorities who were endeavouring to fight it; my task was not an easy one, but thanks to the help I received from the Chinese members of the Board I was fortunate in avoiding the many pitfalls which beset my path and I may add there was no actual rioting.

Sound Advisers.—In the General Post Office I was naturally not so much in touch with the members of the Chinese community nor in the office of First Police Magistrate to which I was appointed in 1917. But in December 1918 on my appointment as Captain Superintendent of Police, the need of sound advisers was more than ever necessary and from this time on I was in close touch with my Chinese friends and more particularly our old friend Sir Shou-son Chow and the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall and more recently with Dr. T'so and the Hon. Mr. T. N. Chau to whose constant help and advice I owe so much.

All Full of Wine.—Many will still remember the delightful function at the Kam Ling Hotel in 1928 when I received the C.M.G. at which when we were all full of wine and good cheer, Mr. Chau put up a small fan to auction for the benefit of the Street Boys' Club which realised $1,500 after very spirited bidding by all present and this kept the Club going for a considerable period.

In all crises through which we have passed since I took office as C.S.P., my Chinese friends have been at hand and through their instrumentality the Chinese Special constables and later the Chinese Company of the Police Reserve came to our active aid in the suppression of boycotts and more recently serious rioting.

Loyal Co-operation.—If my regime as I.G.P. has in any measure been successful, I feel that it is due to the loyal co-operation, first and foremost, of all Police ranks particularly the Chinese Units of the regular force both uniform and detectives who with their local ties were most open to attack in the boycotts of 1922 and 1925 but who with but almost negligible exceptions stood their ground and remained loyal and under perfect discipline throughout the weary months of strife.

I much regret that my sudden departure has made it impossible for me to pay my farewell respects to General Ho Lok, the able commander of the Canton Police Force for whose heart co-operation and ready help I feel so grateful (appliance).

The Greatest Regret.—I leave Hong Kong and you all with the greatest regret after all these years of happy co-operation and good fellowship but I feel that I leave you in safe hands and I know that your co-operation and help will be assured to my successor in the same measure as it has been vouchsafed to me over a period of close on 35 years.

Mr. Chairman: I thank you for your kind remarks and for your good wishes for my health and happiness in the Old Country and that of my wife and family, and I, in turn, wish you a speedy return to prosperous times and

"CATHERINE THE GREAT"

It was her wedding night. She was a young and beautiful Princess, and at a noonday ceremony she had been the bride of a handsome young Prince, heir to his country's throne.

Her bridal night! The Royal bed-chamber was a magnificent room hung with priceless tapestries. The bed, standing on a raised dais was a masterpiece of the woodcarver's art.

But the Princess who should have been in Seventh Heaven was holding her face in her hands and sobbing bitterly: her bridegroom-Prince was spending the night with a mistress in a forest hunting lodge.

The Prince was Peter, heir to the throne of all the Russias, and his forsaken bride was Catherine, who subsequently became Catherine the Great.

These incidents figure in the brilliant new film "Catherine The Great," which stars Douglas Fairbanks, Junior, as Peter, and Elizabeth Bergner as Catherine. It was produced by Alexander Korda, who made "The Private Life of Henry

Exhibition Planned

An exhibition of Chinese products, including goods manufactured in Hong Kong, Shanghai, Canton and Foochow, will be held in the Colony between November 1 and 10. The venue will be the roof garden of Messrs. Spence Company.

Elaborate arrangements are being made in order to display to best advantage the various goods that will be on display.

There are 25 Hong Kong factories participating, 24 Shanghai factories, seven firms in Canton and one each from Macao, Foochow and Hangchow, who will be sending goods for the exhibition. Among the articles on display will be silks, bakelite ware, electric goods, books and stationery, confectionery, biscuits, medical supplies, paints, toilet articles, singlets, stockings, pencils, enamel ware, rubber shoes, etc.

The present exhibition is the second of its kind to be held in the Colony, a similar one having been held last year. The coming display however is on a much larger scale than its predecessor.

VIII," and directed by Paul Czinner, Miss Bergner's husband. The film is to have a special presentation at the King's Theatre to-day.

Unbalanced Husband.—The story of "Catherine the Great" covers her life from the time of her arrival in Russia, an unsophisticated little German girl, to the day of the revolution which makes her Empress. It tells how her unbalanced husband neglects her; how she invents a regiment of imaginary lovers to rouse his jealousy, how she still loves him despite his humiliating treatment of her; after his accession to the throne; and how finally she is forced to take the reins of government into her own hands.

Elizabeth Bergner is considered by many good judges to be the finest actress in the world. The role of Catherine, opposite Douglas Fairbanks, Junior's brilliant characterization of Peter, gives her a perfect entry into English speaking pictures and an opportunity of displaying her emotional talents to the full.

The cast supporting Mr. Fairbanks, Jr., and Miss Bergner includes some of the screen's finest actors and actresses.

The Settings

The settings, which were furnished with many original pieces borrowed from collectors, were the work of Vincent Korda. His ornate walls and particularly his patterns for the inlaid wood floors, have since been widely copied.

The costumes and uniforms were the design of John Armstrong, who was responsible for the costumes in "The Private Life of Henry VIII." A great deal of time was spent by him, and a staff of experts, on scouring old records and historical data so that the costumes, military and diplomatic uniforms should be correct in every detail.

Trial Trip From Nanning

(From Our Special Correspondent)
Canton, Oct. 19.

The South-west Aviation Corporation will make a trial trip of one of their passenger planes from Nanning, provincial capital of Kwangsi to Kweichow, provincial capital of Kweichow. The trip was to have started yesterday, but owing to unfavourable weather conditions the flight was postponed to October 30.

At present, this semi-official company is operating a line from Canton to Lungchow via Muchow and Nanking, and another line are catering for passenger and air mail services, and business is said to be good owing to the reasonable fare and considerable delays via overland and maritime routes.

Owing to the lack of highways between Kwangsi and Kweichow (located North-west of Kwangsi), an air line service offers good prospects. Under present conditions, people travelling between the two provinces have to walk or ride on horses and sedan chairs.

The air service between Canton and Lungchow is also popular on account of the speed and the absence of comfortable accommodation by low-boats and buses. The air trip takes only five hours. Although Kwangtung and Kwangsi boast of miles of highways, they are really dirt roads. Bus passengers have to suffer considerable jerks and bumps while travelling by air is much faster and comfortable.

SILVER EQUALISATION ATTEMPT

Shanghai Foreign Banks Raise Opposition

Shanghai, Oct. 19. The decision to establish a Silver Equalisation Committee, it is reported, was reached at a conference of leading local bankers called yesterday by Dr. H. H. Kung, the Minister of Finance.

Local foreign banks are reported to be opposed to the formation of a Silver Equalisation Committee. According to the "China Press," the initiative in opposing the Committee's formation has been taken by leading Japanese banks and financial interests in Shanghai.

AN EXPLANATION

In an endeavour to clear up certain misconceptions and explain the recent action of the Minister of Finance, Dr. H. H. Kung, in relation to silver, a statement was issued to-day in which it was pointed out that China was not going off the silver standard.

The introduction of a silver export duty and an equalisation charge, merely broke the link between silver in China and silver abroad. The link had been severely strained, in any event, on account of the recent rise, through speculation, of silver prices in London and New York.

The present measures with regard to silver had been adopted by the Government because the unhealthy market conditions had culminated in a drain of silver from China which, if unchecked, would have led to the loss of an essential part of the metallic base of China's currency, the statement said.

LONDON COMMENT

London, Oct. 19. Commenting on the Chinese exchange confusion, the "Times" City Editor notes that business men in London are at present divided in their views with regard to the practical wisdom of the Chinese Government's action. Critics doubt whether it is possible by artificial means to fix effectively the exchange rates, regardless of the price of silver.

Apparently the Government's action was taken mainly out of consideration for the export trade which was undoubtedly feeling the adverse effects of the rising price of silver. This, on the other hand, would stimulate the import trade, owing to the higher purchasing power of China's currency.

Reuter.

OUTCOME UNCERTAIN

London, Oct. 19. Financiers regard to-day's upward tendency of the Chinese exchange to be a natural reaction after the recent fall which was probably overdone, but so many factors are involved that exchange rates are likely to continue uncertain. In the long run China's balance of trade will be the determining factor in the value of the dollar.

It is generally believed that silver prices will be artificially depressed by nervous speculators and selling must arise again, but everyone is chary of expressing an opinion regarding the outcome of the so-called Sino-American silver war.

THE SPANISH REVOLT

More Arrests Effected

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, October 19, 7.30 p.m.)

Madrid, Oct. 19. Numerous arrests were made at Catalonia on Thursday, among the most prominent of which were the private secretary to the ex-President of the Generalidad, Companys, the leader of the Radical left deputy, Dot, the chief of the citizens' defence force, several members of the Socialist Left, ex-Captain Rebollo who played an active part in the insurrection and who fell into the hands of the police as he wanted to flee across the French frontier.

It is reported from Oviedo, that the last remnants of the rebel forces have been overpowered by government troops. The arms factory at Trubia has also been taken. Several hostages have been freed including ex-Minister Pedregal.

Military operations were impeded by rain and snow but the Madrid Government declares that the restoration of normal state of affairs is only a matter of a few hours more.

CABINET MEETING

Madrid, Oct. 18. A cabinet meeting was held on Thursday night under the chairmanship of Alcalá Zamora, President of the Spanish Republic. Once again the records of those rebels sentenced to death by court martial in Barcelona and Asturias were carefully examined. Despite lengthy deliberations no decision has yet been reached as to whether the sentences should be carried out. President Zamora advocates reprieve while the majority of the Ministers advise the execution of the sentences demanded by the military authorities. Finally Lerroux declared that the Cabinet will make its decision on the pronouncement of the Supreme Court. At the same cabinet session, ex-Minister Salazar Alonso was appointed Mayor of Madrid. The Government also passed an extraordinary credit of 47 million pesetas for the strengthening of police and storm detachments.

PRESENT REGIME IN THE SAAR

Reasons Adduced For Its Termination

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, October 19, 4.30 p.m.)

Berlin, Oct. 19. The continuation of the present regime in the Saar Territory will not only constitute a serious obstacle in the path of the Franco-German reconciliation but will be a permanent centre for intrigue calculated to endanger even the national unity of France herself, stated the District Leader and Reich Commissary for the Saar Region, Buerckel, in a speech delivered at a Mass meeting at Kaiserslautern in the course of which he sharply criticised the recent French Saar memorandum, maintaining that the memorandum by interfering with internal German Affairs, attempted to influence the Saar voters.

In deprecating the argument advanced by those favouring the continuation of the status quo that a second plebiscite might be held at some future date in case the forthcoming vote, should result in the retention of the present status, Buerckel pointed out that the Treaty of Versailles did not provide for a second plebiscite and that it had never been the intention of the Versailles conference to make the fate of the Saar Region contingent on the incidental political constellations of Germany or France. The speaker pointed out that the majority of those propagating the continuation of the status quo were Marxists and Communist emigrants striving to establish in the heart of Europe a safe asylum for themselves and to centre their activities in order to infect the neighbouring countries with their international Marxist and Communist ideas.

The continuation of the status quo, so Buerckel concluded, would not be a French victory over Germany, but a victory of bolshevism over Europe.—Transocean Kuo Min.

GOERING AND PETAIN

Short Conference In Belgrade

Belgrade, Oct. 19. General Goering met Marshal Petain on coming out of the Church at Topola on the conclusion of the funeral ceremony for the late King Alexander and the two soldiers had a cordial talk lasting a quarter of an hour and arousing much interest among the other guests. General Goering will fly back to Berlin on Friday. The first to leave Belgrade on Thursday was President Lebrun who was obliged to return to Paris to attend the funeral of M. Poincaré. Before leaving, President Lebrun had a conversation lasting several hours with M. Titulescu and Dr. Benes, which was obviously devoted to a discussion on questions connected with the extraordinary conference of the Little Entente powers which is being held on Friday afternoon.

President Lebrun left in a special train in the company of the Yugoslav Prince Arsen and the Roumanian Prince Nicolas, who will represent their respective countries at the funeral of M. Poincaré.—Transocean Kuo Min.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE MARKET

London Divided Into Two Camps

London, Oct. 19.

Has the seasonal weakness of sterling ended or is the heavy continental bear covering responsible for the reversal in the recent trend of sterling?

The foreign exchange market is divided into two camps. Some point to comparative steadiness in the dollar in terms of gold currencies as indicating that the franc is the weakest link in the dollar-sterling-franc triangle. Although excitement has been caused by the Marseilles tragedy, it seems to be calming down and the future of the French Government is arousing apprehensions and speculators are covering former sales of sterling for safety.

The other camp point out correctly that the sentiment towards sterling is now much more favourable, emphasising that New York yesterday was on balance more a seller than a buyer of dollars which they argue shows the seasonal pressure on sterling is now over.

The "Financial News" states that even if sterling resumes in autumn depreciation, it is unlikely to lose more than two per cent. On the other hand once the tide has turned, a ten per cent appreciation is conceivable.—Reuter.

VIGILANCE IN SPAIN

Arms and Dynamite Unearthed

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, October 19, 4.30 p.m.)

Madrid, Oct. 19. A large quantity of arms and ammunition has been discovered in various Spanish towns on Thursday as a result of renewed searches made by the Police.

In a cheese-merchant's store in Valencia in the first instance, 1,260 hand grenades and numerous sacks filled with explosives were found, while in an ironmonger's store in Bilbao 50 bombs, 300 rounds of cartridges, and several cases of dynamite were brought to light.

In the trial resulting from the discovery of an extensive store of weapons in the Socialist Headquarters at Madrid some time ago, six of the accused received sentences of three years' imprisonment and a fine of 1,000 pesetas each, while ten others were acquitted.

Forty-five Workers' organisations which were the joint proprietors of the building which housed the Socialist Headquarters have been dissolved by an order of the Attorney General.—Transocean Kuo Min.

BURIAL OF THE KING

The Last Scenes

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright))

Belgrade, Oct. 18.

The mortal remains of King Alexander were finally laid to rest on Thursday afternoon in the Mausoleum of the Karađorđević dynasty which forms part of the magnificent memorial church of Oplenac built by the late King's father, Peter, at Topola in the heart of Serbia. A special train bearing the dead sovereign as well as members of the Royal family and other distinguished guests had arrived at 2 p.m. at Lendenovac from where the cortege proceeded by motor car to Topola. After an impressive ceremony, the coffin was deposited in the family vault.

For every Yugoslav, Topola is a most sacred spot since it was here that the Serbian struggle for liberty began. Here cracked out the first shots against the Turkish oppression a hundred years ago, and it was here that the first fighters for Serbia's freedom rallied round Karađorđ "the Great," founder of the dynasty.

Never-ending rows of peasants and their wives in multi-coloured costumes were lined up along the whole forty-mile distance from Belgrade to Lendenovac as the train bearing the dead King's body rolled past. All held burning candles in their hands as a last touching greeting from the Yugoslav peasantry to their departed sovereign.—Transocean Kuo Min.

TERRORIST LEADER

Extradition Demand By France

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, October 19, 7.30 p.m.)

Paris, Oct. 19. The French authorities are demanding the extradition of the leader of the Croatian terrorists, Pavelitch who was arrested in Turin on Thursday, and also his assistant, Eugene Kvaternik. Before the Italian Government can comply with the French request it will be necessary to decide whether the party played by the two arrested can be technically regarded as political crime or not. The usual practice hitherto is that those guilty of political offences are not extraditable. Exceptions, however, are usually made in the case of murders especially of prominent statesmen or chiefs of state. The Marseilles police have since discovered that Pavelitch crossed the frontier into France on September 30 to prepare the King's assassination when he stayed with his wife in a hotel near Marseilles railway station registering under his real name but spelt in the Roumanian way "Pavelarescu".—Transocean Kuo Min.

"MASTER MINDS"

Rome, Oct. 18. Two alleged "master minds" who are believed to have instigated and organised the Marseilles outrage have been arrested in Turin on Thursday, according to an official announcement which states that two Yugoslav nationals, Eugene Kvaternik and Dr. Anton Pavelitch have been taken into custody by the Italian authorities in Turin at the request of the French police. Pavelitch is said to be the head of the Croatian revolutionary group which is believed to have engineered the crime, while Kvaternik is supposed to have been Pavelitch's right hand man and to have supervised the carrying out of the dastardly deed.

Both men have been subjected to a rigorous examination but so far they deny complicity in the outrage.—Transocean Kuo Min.

STOCK MARKET "WAR"

Amazing Story At Insull Trial

Chicago, October 18.

An amazing story of a stock market "war" between Mr. Samuel Insull and Mr. Cyrus Eaton, a rival capitalist, was told at the hearing of the fraud charges against Insull, his prother, and their associates.

The prosecution alleged that Eaton acquired such large holdings in the key companies controlled by Insull as to endanger Insull's control, and Insull was obliged to buy back a number of shares from Eaton at an exorbitant price. Eaton's terms including $48,000,000 in cash and $3,000,000 in stock.

The Corporation Securities Company, one of the Insull companies, was drained dry by Eaton, and Insull floated a $40,000,000 loan to provide more cash.

The prosecution allege that this emergency financing was concealed from investors who were simultaneously urged to buy stock from the Company.—Reuter.

U.S. MONETARY SCHEME

Move To Augment Conference

Washington, Oct. 18.

What is generally regarded as a further move to augment confidence in the monetary programme of the United States, was made to-day by the Treasury when it took the major part of its seigniorage profits out of general receipts and placed them in the general fund column. The seigniorage profits are those accruing from the Government's charge for coinage of metals.

The profits from the issuance of certificates under the Silver Purchase Act against either bought or nationalised silver, will henceforth be treated just as is the U.S. $312,000,000 gold devaluation inventory. This amount, the Treasury took from profit of about U.S. $2,812,000,000 resulting from the 40 per cent devaluation of the dollar this year. The profit was placed in the general fund.

To-day's figures showed that seigniorage profits up to October 18 amounted to U.S. $3,171,298. Silver certificates previously printed

FUTURE FRENCH POLICY

No Change Under New Minister

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, October 19, 4.30 p.m.)

Paris, Oct. 19. That the French Foreign Policy as ushered in by the late M. Barthou will undergo no change under the new Foreign Minister M. Laval, was once more stressed with particular emphasis in well-informed political circles, which add in this connection, that M. Laval has not abandoned the idea to proceed to Rome to negotiate a Franco-Italian and Italian-Yugoslav rapprochement.

M. Laval however, as already stated, will not be able to carry out this projected visit before the end of November since he is desirous personally to proceed to Geneva to take part in the League deliberations on the Saar.

Well informed French circles point out in this connection that the new French Foreign Minister is taking particular interest in this subject which he studied very closely in the past few days.—Transocean Kuo Min.

ENGLAND-MELBOURNE AIR RACE

Arrangements For The Event To-day

London, Oct. 18. Competing machines in the England-Melbourne air race will be taken from the hangars at Mildenhall on Saturday one hour before the first plane is signalled off at 6.30 a.m.

Only bad visibility or fog will delay the start of the race. If weather conditions are such that none of the planes has been sent off by 10 a.m. on Saturday morning it is likely the start will be postponed until Sunday, as all competitors are anxious to have as much daylight flying as possible for their first hop.

At present, however, there is every prospect of favourable weather over Europe on Saturday—British Wireless.

THE PILOTS

The following is the list of pilots competing in the race:

Squadron Leader Malcolm McGregor, and Mr. Henry Walker (New Zealand); Colonel Roscoe Turner and Mr. Clyde Pangborne (United States); M. D. L. Asjes and M. J. Geysendorfer (Holland); Lieut. M. Hansen (Denmark); Squadron Leader Stodart and Mr. E. G. Stodart (Britain); Flying Officer C. G. Davies and Lieut. Commander Hill (Britain); C. J. Melrose (S. Australia); Mr. Cathart Jones and Mr. K. F. H. Waller (Britain), whose entry is doubtful owing to their crashing yesterday; Col. G. J. Fitzmaurice and Mr. E. W. Bonar (Ireland); Mr. H. L. Brook (Britain); Mr. John H. Wright (United States); Mr. R. Pater and Mr. G. E. Hemsworth (New Guinea); J. C. Woods and Mr. D. C. Bennett (Australia); Herr K. D. Farnemier and Herr J. J. Moll (Holland); Miss Jacqueline Cochran and Mr. Wesley Smith (United States); Flight Lieut. G. Shaw (Britain); Capt. T. Neville Stack and Mr. S. L. Turner (Britain); Mr. J. D. Hewitt and Mr. C. E. Kay (New Zealand); Flying Officer H. D. Gilman (Britain); Capt. and Mrs. J. A. Mollison (Britain).

BRITAIN'S HOPES

Flying trials of the de Havilland Comet racing aeroplane, on which rest Britain's chief hopes of victory in the "speed" race from England to Melbourne, have shown that the designers' expectations will be realized. The craft easily attains its guaranteed maximum speed of 200 miles an hour and at the same time should be able to carry enough to make the longest stage of the race—2,530 miles from Mildenhall, Suffolk, to Baghdad—non-stop. Whatever be the fate of the three Comet machines in the race, that is an outstanding technical achievement, because the Comet conforms to the strength and take-off requirements demanded of an ordinary commercial aeroplane. It is not a racing freak.

Work is proceeding day and night on the machines to ensure that they are ready in every detail well before the start of the race at 6.30 a.m. on October 20. The de Havilland technicians, whose chief thought in every waking hour all this year has been the progress of Comet design and construction, are leaving nothing to chance. All of the resources of the firm are engaged. When they ascend from Mildenhall, the three machines will be as nearly perfect as the aeronautical engineer, in the light of existing knowledge, can devise.

ILLNESS OF TEAMS

Unfortunately, one of the three teams chosen to pilot Comets in the race has been smitten by serious illness. Mr. Bernard Rubin, who had purchased a Comet and had planned a most efficient organization all along the route, is in a nursing home with grave chest trouble. No decision has yet been reached as to the pilot who will accompany Mr. Ken Waller in his place, but I understand that the most likely substitute is Flight Lieutenant E. H. Fielden, personal pilot to the Prince of Wales. Fielden is a magnificent cross-country pilot and a highly skilled navigator. His flying experience runs into thousands of hours. He has not yet flown between England and Australia; that lack would be supplied by Mr. Waller, who recently with Mr. Rubin flew to and from Melbourne in a Leopard Moth monoplane, and incidentally, beat the record for the homeward journey from Port Darwin by a big margin.

the chances are that King's Parade will win. Incidentally this pony will be going out under Mr. Proulx. Sarabande has been running very well lately and I should not be surprised to see him get a place. Several ponies which have been failing indifferently hitherto are now shaping very well on the sand track in the mornings and may do well. In Good Time, Helter Skelter, Vigilance and Iron Grey comes under this category and those looking for big dividends might do worse than back one of these.

Hetman

I think Hetman with Mr. Taylor up should win the last race of the day without much difficulty, as the only serious opposition is Mayflower who will be ridden by Mr. F. F. L. I am told that What a Chance is being kept back for this race and he should find a place. Daylight Eve is a good outsider here.

GOSSIP FROM THE CAMPS

A Preston North End official was over in Ireland on the occasion of the League International. That doesn't mean that North End are interested in Irish players. Nor is it any criterion of the Deepdale activities behind the scenes. North End are out with a warrant for an outside-left. They are not likely to find one in Ireland.

The chief impression left on the North End representative was the play of Horatio Carter. "What a variety of moves the Sunderland boy has," appraised this official.

A Sunderland Fancy

Sunderland are keen to improve their playing strength. A hint received about a player operating in the Cheshire League has set the Roker officials going. As a result, Sunderland may soon record the signing of a new centre-forward.

The player is Beswick, a 19-year-old, who has but recently sprung into prominence. He is with Congleton, the Cheshire League club.

Sunderland will have opposition. At least half a dozen other League clubs are watching the progress of this lad. He's just the right size and shape. What is more important, however, is that he's sharp at close quarters.

Stoke City are not asleep. It will be a bit of a surprise to some people to learn that Netts County were just beaten by Huddersfield Town for the transfer of Albert Malam from Chesterfield.

Manager Charlie Jones was on the job. I fancy that the ability of Huddersfield Town to put the money down was the big obstacle to the former Arsenal player. The cheque for £3000 was in the Chesterfield office as soon as the papers had been signed.

Sheffield Experiment

I wonder if there is more than meets the eye in the fact that Sheffield Wednesday have been experimenting with Mark Hooper, their outside-right, as an inside-left. Mark, I know, always had a hankering to be an inside-forward.

I learned the other day, however, that another First Division club has a big liking for Harry Burgess, the Wednesday's regular inside-left. The former Stockport County player has been the subject of an inquiry looked at Huddersfield. Does that explain the Mark Hooper experiment?

On Talent Hunt

Though their need is by no means so acute, Sunderland and Middlesbrough are searching for players just as assiduously as their friends at Newcastle. Both were interested in Wigglesworth, the Chesterfield outside-left.

Sunderland are looking mostly for defensive players; Middlesbrough for anything that will strengthen their reserves. The Borough remember, started the season with a small professional staff.

Manager Whit Gillow saw Middlesbrough play their first three matches this season. Since then he has been otherwise engaged on Saturdays.

Blackburn's Young Scots. Young Jackie Milne, from Glasgow Ashfield, has been noted down for future reference by Mr. George Graham, the secretary of the Scottish Football Association. Jackie's time will come.

One of his troubles is that he is playing out of his natural position—outside-right—with Blackburn Rovers. That does not mean to say he is not a successful outside-left. Only he favours going inside to outside when beating his man.

International honours for Jackie are not an outside possibility. The Rovers, too, have other young Scots making a mark in their reserve ranks. We'll be hearing of these later on.

Wrexham Talent

Some of Wrexham's young reserve forwards are knocking at the first team door. All five are sparkling in the Birmingham League. A good point about them is that two are practically locals and the others cost nothing. That's good team-building by Mr. Ernest Blackburn, the Wrexham manager.

A World Beater

With his hand on his heart (more or less) I heard a First Division manager declare that Wilson Jones, this goal-scoring wonder in Wrexham's second team, would be a world beater in two years' time. The funny thing is that in the company at the time was an Aston Villa representative, who, I think, is taking an interest in this young player.

He is not given to saying much but I bet his ears cocked. Just

POLICE CLUB FAREWELL Reception To Mr. Wolfe

Over two hundred and fifty members and guests gathered at the Police Recreation Club last night in a farewell reception to the Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, C.M.G., Inspector General of Police, who leaves with Mrs. Wolfe on retirement next Tuesday.

Besides Mr. Wolfe there were present Mr. T. H. King, Deputy Inspector General of Police, Mr. G. C. Chatham, Mr. D. Burlingham, Mr. W. R. Scott, Mr. L. H. C. Calthrop, Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones, Mr. T. Murphy, Mr. K. A. Bidmead, Mr. A. J. C. Taylor, Mr. T. Hynes, Mr. W. W. Ward and Mr. R. D. Davies.

Chief Inspector Clarke, who pre-arranged mentioned the many changes which came into force soon after Mr. Wolfe had taken over the Police Force in 1919, not the least being the large increase in the establishment and the inauguration of the Police Training School.

Mr. T. Murphy said: "I am sure you must all feel as I do that in losing Mr. Wolfe we are losing a very great friend—a friend who has stood by us in the hour of need and who was ever an inspiration to us by his courage and example (applause)."

Mr. Fitz Henry on behalf of the Fire Brigade and Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones as one of the guests also spoke. In his reply, Mr. Wolfe expressed thanks and urged closer co-operation between the Force and the Magistrates.

FRIENDLY FOOTBALL

H.K. Hotel v. S.S. Chitral

A friendly soccer match between teams from the Hong Kong and Shanghai Hotels, Ltd. and the P. and O. S.S. Chitral took place on the Kowloon Football ground on Thursday afternoon. Both teams played fairly evenly in the first half but in the second half the Hotels' combination showed up stronger and took the score to 4 nil against the Chitral thereby winning a pleasant contest.

The following represented the Hotels:—Lung; A. Krikyay, Yan Ding Wah; Lam Tak Po, Man Kai Sul, Mok Yee Lick; Chan Shui Kee, Ewok Hon Wah, Ho Sai Chong, Leung Pink Kan.

The same the Villa will find Wrexham difficult to persuade.

Wants a Change. Highgate Collopy's name is before at least two League clubs this week. I don't think the famous little Scot will remain much longer with Chelsea.

Rumour has been coupling his name with Manchester United, but Highgate informed me at the week-end that he had not been approached by the Old Trafford club. It is no secret that Highgate would like a change of quarters.

CRICKET

H.K.C.C. Teams For To-day

The following will represent the H.K.C.C. in the cricket fixtures to-day against the University. The senior match is on the Club ground, and the junior game is on the University ground.

First Division:—A. W. Hayward, L. D. Kilbre, E. R. Duckitt, T. M. L. Redmond, W. H. B. Riss, B. Owen Hughes, T. E. Pearce, G. S. Dunkley, J. McGinnes, E. Bathurst, A. N. Other.

Second Division:—H. J. Armstrong, G. H. Owen, R. T. Talbot, W. Keith-Robinson, C. W. E. Bishop, D. Rose Gill, L. P. Rowley, G. A. Nulbath, J. Stein, J. A. Ritchie, O. N. E. More.

MOST VALUABLE BASEBALLER

Mickey Cochrane

New York, Oct. 18.

Mickey Cochrane, manager of Detroit Tigers, American League baseball winners, was named the most valuable American League baseballer for 1934.

This is the second time that the honour has fallen to Cochrane, having been voted by the Committee to this title in 1928.

The Committee of Eight awarded 67 votes out of a possible 80 to Cochrane, while Gehrig, of the New York Yankees, was second with 65 votes.

THE EXCHANGE MARKET

MESSRS. ROZA BROS.

Ready Silver at 23½ and Forward at 23½ were 7/8 down for both deliveries. Fairly active conditions were reported in London, speculators operating on both sides of the market, India and America were in market as buyers. The closing tone was steady with indications of support. Business was actually down at 1/8 over quotations. In New York the price was 53½.

Sterling opened in the New York market at 4.94 and closed at 4.94½.

Market

The tone was decidedly uncertain at the opening but quickly firmed up under selling indications, closing at the lunch hour with a firmish tendency. Business was fair.

Sterling

The market opened with sellers
at 1/7 5/16 and buyers at 1/7 7/16 with a possibility of 1/7½ leading to business, but buyers declined this rate when offered.
Business was done at 1/7 7/16 for near followed by transactions at 1/7½ for cash, 1/7 9/16 December and cash. Later offers at 1/7½ 1/7 11/16, 1/7½ and 1/7 13/16 were accepted for various deliveries, closing at 1 p.m. with sellers at 1/7½ October/December, buyers at 1/7 13/16 for October/November and probably December.

U.S. Dollars

Started with sellers at 40½, buyers at 40½. Later business was done at 40½ November, followed by transactions at 40 13/16 for October/November and 40½ November. The market closed at 4 p.m. with sellers at 40½ October/November and 40½ December, buyers at 40 13/16 October/November and 40½ December.

Shanghai Market

Business done at 122½, 122½ and 122.

Shanghai Dollars

Sterling opened at 1/3½ and Dollars at 32½, improving subsequently to 1/3½ and later to 1/4.
Dollars to 32½ and to 32 15/16.
The market was firm possibly encouraged by the fact that the market in Hongkong for the time being at any rate, would remain
free from restrictions as to Silver.

IN THE AFTERNOON

Following the tone in Shanghai the afternoon session opened with a strong tone.

Sterling

Sterling was offered at 1/7 13/16, 1/7½, resulting in business at 1/7 15/16 for October, subsequently 1/8, 1/8 1/16, 1/8½
for October and November, 1/8 7/32
January, 1/8 3/16 for October and for November. Closing tone was sellers at 1/8½ and buyers
at 1/8 3/16 October/November.
U.S. Dollars, business was recorded at 41½ for October, finishing with sellers at 41½, buyers at 41½.

Yen

Afternoon rate 143½.

Gulders

59½.

Shanghai Dollars

In good demand at declining rates from 122 to 119 business done, closing with possible sellers at 119.

Shanghai Market

The tone firmed up considerably in the afternoon. Sterling from 1/4 to 1/4½ and Dollars from 33
to 33½.

YESTERDAY'S OFFICIAL QUOTATIONS

After a period of inactivity the market showed signs of improvement and there was a general demand for Hotels, Lands, Trams, Telephones, Lights and Wharves.
The volume of business however was on a restricted scale in spite of higher prices offered. The firmer tone of Exchange has brought out sellers of Banks and Unions.

GERMAN SHARE MARKET

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, Oct. 18.

Every section in the share-market was depressed on Thursday as a result of the new taxation announced on Wednesday whereby profits accruing from price rises are subjected to a calculation tax if the shares were resold within one year. Fixed interest securities are unaffected by the new regulations with the result that investors turned their attention in this direction and consequently there was a general rise in all sections. Gold and Mortgage bonds rose by as much as one per cent. Call Money 4
to 4½.

NEW ZEALAND

Next Governor-General

(Special Air Mail Special)

London, Oct. 2.

It is officially announced that the King has approved the appointment of the Viscount Galway,
D.B.O., O.B.E., to be Governor-General of New Zealand in succession to the Right Honourable Lord Bledisloe, G.C.M.G., K.B.E., D.Sc., whose term of office will expire in March of next year.

Lord Galway, who was at Eton
and Christ Church, Oxford, commanded the Life Guards from 1925 to 1929 after having served on the staff of the 4th Cavalry Brigade (1914-15) and of the 2nd Cavalry Division from then till the end of the Great War. He became Colonel Commandant of the Honourable Artillery Company last year on the retirement of Lord Denhig.

Although his senior title is Irish,
Lord Galway also holds the Barony of Monckton of Serry in the Peerage of the United Kingdom.
He was created in 1887, and his family has long been connected with Yorkshire and Nottinghamshire. His predecessors in the title—the Viscounts was created in 1727—sat almost continuously in the British House of Commons for Yorkshire constituencies (for Pontefract for 52 years) from 1771 to 1802, and for Nottinghamshire constituencies from 1847 to 1885. Lord Galway himself unsuccessfully contested Scarborough in 1910. Lady Galway is a sister of Lord Annaly.
